U.S. Democrats Abroad Announce Voting Centers for May 1-6 Global Primary

Global Primary to be conducted at 91 Voting Centers in 33 Countries to Determine Delegates to Democratic National Convention

Washington, DC –

From May 1-6, thousands of U.S. citizens from Canada to New Zealand will have the chance to vote in their 2012 Global Primary to choose their Democratic nominee for their President.

"We are at the half way point of the U.S. State Primary season when the Democratic and Republican Parties will be making their final choices for their Presidential candidate" said Kenneth Sherman, International Chair of Democrats Abroad.

The May 1-6 Democratic 2012 Global Primary allows for balloting in person at 91 Voting Centers in 33 Countries (See attached list of voting centers). Members can also vote by requesting an absentee ballot at vote2012@democratsabroad.org by April 30 if they cannot get to a Voting Center. The choice on the ballot is between President Barack Obama or Uncommitted and their delegate representatives.

"Our overseas vote is having a greater and greater impact on U.S. election results," says Sherman, an American abroad living in Canada. "We are reaching out to US citizens in every corner of the world to join us as members and vote. Our votes make a difference in close elections."

The worldwide election results will determine the election of 17 delegates who will attend the Democratic National Convention along with 8 DNC members next September 3-7 in Charlotte, North Carolina. These delegates will be elected at a combination of the May 1-6 Voting Center elections and the May 18-20 Global Convention to be held in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. These meetings also provide an opportunity for Americans abroad to shape the party's election platform.

American citizens living overseas who want to vote in the Democratic Global Primary must be members of Democrats Abroad, or join by April 30th at www.democratsabroad.org in order to secure an absentee ballot. Ballots can then be requested from Democrats Abroad at vote2012@democratsabroad.org. If voting in person at a voting center, one can register at that time.

To vote in the U.S. Presidential Election in November, overseas voters must request a ballot from local voting authorities in the place where they last resided in the U.S. Voters can register now at www.VoteFromAbroad.org

The Democrats Abroad Global Primary will take place from May 1-6, 2012.

The Democrats Abroad Global Convention will take place in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, May 18-20, 2012.

The Democratic National Convention will take place in Charlotte, North Carolina, U. S. September 3-7, 2012.

The U.S. Presidential Election will take place on November 6, 2012. Deadlines for requesting overseas absentee ballots vary per state.
