

DEMOCRATS ABROAD

GET INVOLVED IN OUR INAUGURATION WEEK OF ACTION

Can't join in any of the group events planned for inauguration week in major cities around the globe? Here are a few ways you can participate no matter where you are:

1. Communicate:

- Call or write your own local legislators and voice your opinions: <http://www.whoismyrepresentative.com/>
- Write a letter of thanks to President Obama: <https://www.whitehouse.gov/contact/write-or-call>
- Join in on-going DA Letter-writing and phoning campaigns. Watch the DA website for new campaigns as they are announced. <http://www.democratsabroad.org/>

2. Support the “Love Trumps Hate” movement with random acts of kindness. Follow these links for suggestions:

3. Participate in the Photo-Mosaic Project:

- Step 1: Take a photo of your own personal candle-light vigil on Inauguration day, or during any other “positive protest action” you and your friends might be involved in during the week.
- Step 2: Post your photos on any DA Facebook page (posting will appear in the visitors section)
- Your photos will later be worked in together with photos from the larger events all over the world into a mosaic-photograph. Be creative. The more the better!

4. Refuse to watch the Inauguration on TV.

5. Have your own “moment of silence” as the swearing-in takes place at 12 noon in Washington on January 20th.

6. Wear the safety pin in solidarity with those who Trump hates and to show the bigots around you that you don't share their prejudices. It's a great conversation-starter.
