

Contact Information

We respect your privacy, and to help protect it, none of your data is available to anyone other than the people who administer the groups you belong to, such as the Membership Director of the Country Committee. To be a member of Democrats Abroad, you must be a resident outside of the United States. Your voting address is your last legal residence in the US or, if you never lived in the US, your parent's last legal residence in the US. Data on voting states and zip codes are used to determine where amongst the fifty states your overseas votes are being counted. We urge you to include as much information as possible. PLEASE PRINT:

All emails from Democrats Abroad will be sent to this address. The email address is not made public. Democrats Abroad communicates by email with members on matters concerning US elections and political issues, membership in the organization, and when you wish to reset your password. Democrats Abroad never sells or shares our members' information, not even with other Democratic Party organizations. Democrats Abroad may also solicit contributions, but any contributions are completely voluntary — there are no dues. By providing your email address, you consent to receiving these communications. You may opt-out of receiving email messages. For more on privacy, see https://www.democratsabroad.org/privacy\_statement
