Hi Laura,

Thank you for your email. I'll be happy to respond to your questions:

1. Yes, they are allowed to vote provided they claim residency in the state.
2. Yes, they are allowed to vote provided they claim residency in the state.
3. No.
4. No.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need further clarification.

Best,
Derek Brenchley

Comment / Suggestion - Dear Lt. Governor Cox, I'm a volunteer helping US citizens, living overseas, vote in US elections. We want to make sure that votefromabroad.org provides accurate and up-to-date voting information. Would you please answer the following questions. 1. If a U.S. citizen is residing abroad and they intend to return, are they allowed to vote in state elections? 2. If a U.S. citizen is residing abroad and their return is uncertain, are they allowed to vote in state elections? 3. If a U.S. citizen has never resided in the United States, are they eligible to vote in state elections? 4. If a US citizen has never resided in the United States, are they eligible to vote in federal elections? Thank you for taking the time to answer our questions. We appreciate you helping Americans execute one of their most important rights! Take Care, Laura Ashley Lewis
