

Hi Ms. Augustine,

I sincerely apologize for the delay. Especially with how simple my answer is. The answer is yes to all four questions below.

Let me know if you need anything else.

Subject: Voting Overseas

Dear Mr. Senning,

I am not sure if you received the e-mail I sent you in November. I tried to call you today but you were in a meeting. I'm a volunteer helping US citizens, living overseas, vote in US elections. We want to make sure that votefromabroad.org provides accurate and up-to-date voting information. Would you please answer the following questions.

1. If a U.S. citizen is residing abroad and they mark their FPCA intend to return, are they allowed to vote in state elections?
2. If a U.S. citizen is residing abroad and they mark their FPCA return is uncertain, are they allowed to vote in state elections?
3. If a U.S. citizen has never resided in the United States, are they eligible to vote in state elections?
4. If a US citizen has never resided in the United States, are they eligible to vote in federal elections?

Thank you for taking the time to answer our questions. We appreciate you helping Americans execute one of their most important rights!

Take Care,

Tricia Augustine
